NEW YORK.

The American Iron Trade Extending.

ITALIAN SLAVERY INVESTIGATION.

New York, August 21, 1873.

Italian Slavery.

The examination into the case of Vincenzo Motto, the alleged Italian padrone, was continued to-day, and adjourned over till Saturday. A boy, aged eleven, testified to even greater cruelties practiced upon him by Motto than were related by Joseph yesterday. A child, aged seven, shrank away with horror when asked to place his hand on Motto, if it was with him he had lived, and was only prevailed on to do so when accompanied by an officer.

In addition to the testimony, a Deputy Marshal testified that in two houses in Crosby street he found one hundred and fifty children, in each room ten or twelve boys tied by the wrists with a cord, and a man in charge of every room. In some cases the children were marked by the padrones by branding on the cheek, lip or ear.

American Iron.

The iron merchants in this city attribute the lock-out at Manchester, England, to the fact that the high price of English iron and increased production in this country have rendered the American market almost wholly independent of Great Britain. The importation of brightest iron to this country is very light, and confined to special productions, such as Scotch pig. American iron is now sent to Canada, and consumers in California, who formerly obtained all their iron from England, are now buying it in Pittsburgh and this city. An extensive dealer said that in making an estimate this week in regard to eleven hundred tons of sheet iron he found that it could be bought of American manufacturers at half a cent per pound less than the price of an inferior article imported.

Sheriff's Sale of Furniture and Pictures.

The Sheriff has posted a notice of the sale, on Tuesday next, of furniture in the Comptroller's office, pictures in the Governor's room, City Hall, &c., to satisfy a judgment of ten thousand dollars obtained against the city by Judge Fowler.

The Conneautville Courier says that Mr. Eli Brown, of Summit township, in felling a large oak tree on his farm, noticed in one of the large splinters torn out of the centre of the stump the marks of a sharp instrument, the cut seeming to have been made with an ax or something similar. Mr. Brown had the curiosity to count the layers making each year's growth from the cut to the outside, and was surprised to find them to number upwards of three hundred, showing that the cutting must have been done as early as 1573. The block of wood was brought to our office, where it may be seen.

The Republican says there is a man in the County Poor House who came to Meadville August 8th, 1872, from Dixmont Insane Asylum. He has been insane almost ever since his coming, and is now expected to live but a short time. At Greensport, this State, there is an Independent Order German Social Society, the principal business of which appears to consist in consuming beer. Recently its worthy President, Herr Zemsch, being about to leave the town, his fellow-drinkers met to bid him farewell. A poem was recited in which Zemsch was assured that he would always have "A place in our memories so dear. And in our stomachs for beer," and also 'Food remembrance, a hearty good cheer. In a full, foaming glass of good beer!" The conclusion of the poem has the pure muzzy malt flavor: "Farewell, Zemsch, a word which must be, And has been—A word which makes us linger; Yet, Zemsch, we say—Farewell!"

The Brownsville Clipper says:—"On Saturday last, the 16th inst., a little boy, named Cuthbert Harris, son of Jonah Harris, aged about 12 years, was drowned in the river near the boat yard saw mill. He was amusing himself alone on a flat boat that was lying in the water quite near to shore, and it was supposed he made a mis step and fell into the water, and not being able to swim, he was drowned. When the bell rang for quitting work, his father, who acts as engineer in the mill, went to look for the little fellow, and finding his hat on the boat, he suspected the worst at once, and, calling to his assistance some of his fellow workmen, the search was commenced, when they soon found the body of the unfortunate boy sunk in water about six feet deep, quite near to the end of the flat."

Here is what the Altoona Tribune says about it:—The cause of a M'Keels Gap pugilistic encounter between two men named Ginter and Harkst, the other day, was unique as to character. Harkst is fond of sour kraut, and had removed the vessel which is used as a receptable for his winter's supply of that article from the cellar to the pump porch, for purification. He introduced some soap and water inside the vessel, and devoted about an hour to the work of scouring and scrubbing. Then he said it was clean, and went to bed happy, leaving the vessel standing outside the door. At night one of the Ginter family repaired to the Harkst domicile and with malice in his heart did empty into the vessel the contents of a bucket filled with filth, thereby ruining the aforesaid vessel so far as sour kraut purposes are concerned for all time to come. The wrath of Harkst was fearful, and on the first opportunity that presented itself he fell upon Ginter and beat him into a jelly. Harkst was arrested, but was released on bail.

The Altoona Tribune says that on Saturday Patrick Flynn, of Gulick township, Clearfield county, sold to Messrs. Thomas McCauley & Co., of that city, four thousand acres of land in said township for five hundred and fifty thousand dollars, reserving from the property four hundred acres in four farms, a saw mill, grist mill, and sixteen houses and lots in Janesville, worth twenty-five thousand dollars. He also has other property, including fifty million feet of pine lumber, worth a quarter of a million. One-third of the property sold was bought by Mr. Flynn, R. R. Bridgens, and W. T. Simpson, of Lock Haven, seven years ago, for thirty-six thousand dollars. Twenty months ago Mr. Flynn bought Mr. Bridgens' interest for twenty-five thousand dollars, and to-day paid Mr. Moore fifty thousand for his share. Mr. Flynn nets four hundred and fifty thousand dollars by the transaction. This sale to McCauley & Co. is the largest ever made in Clearfield county. He predicts that they will clear a million on their purchase. The land is heavily covered with pine, and underlaid with coal.

TARENTUM CAMP MEETING.

Wednesday—Delightful Weather—Sermons—Recreation—Conversions—Children's Meeting—Close, etc.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEDNESDAY.

A delightful day throughout. The people are enjoying themselves. Brightness is on every countenance, and gladness in every heart.

The experience meeting at 8 a. m. was excellent.

At 10:30 a sermon was preached by Rev. A. B. Leonard, of Cincinnati, on the history of the Pentecostal Scene as recorded in the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. The Reverend gentlemen is a fluent and impressive speaker. The audience was large.

When two o'clock arrived a children's meeting was held. Perhaps one hundred and fifty little ones were present. The meeting was under the direction of J. H. Hillerman, Esq., of your city, in whose heart the Sunday School cause finds a large place. Three addresses were delivered. The first by Rev. J. J. McIlyar, the next by Mrs. McNeely, and the last by Rev. Dr. Watkins. All were rich and racy, giving a rare entertainment to the children.

From the conclusion of this meeting till 5 p. m., the people gave themselves to recreation. Some sat at their cottage doors and talked, others promenaded around the grounds. The children played, and were as gay and happy as birds. It was a season of pleasant social enjoyment.

At 6:15 p. m. the cottage prayer meetings were again held. They seem to be doing much good.

In the evening a very large audience listened to a sermon preached by Rev. J. J. McIlyar; text, "Ask for the old paths, where is the good way," &c. The sermon produced a fine impression. Several persons presented themselves at the altar for prayer, some of whom professed conversion.

The camp meeting is to close on Friday morning, at eight o'clock. AMICUS.

How the Morgue Disposes of Dead Bodies.

Philadelphia, August 21.—Disclosures made by the Police Department to-day reveal a sad state of affairs in the city Morgue. The body of Thomas Munce, a wealthy farmer of Washington county, who left his home in the early part of July last, has been found pickled in the dissecting room of the University. It had been sold to the college by some one connected with the Morgue. The family of the dead man were in the city to-day, and identified the body. The discovery was made by finding the watch of the deceased in a pawn office, where it had been pledged by one Wm. McEwen, who was driver of the Coroner's wagon. Munce was found drowned on the morning of July 3, and McEwen removed the body to the Morgue on the same day. On the 5th it found its way into the college. McEwen has been arrested, and the investigation is being further pushed. The Deputy Coroner states that he holds a receipt of the Superintendent of the city burial ground for the body. It appears that at the time of the inquest the deceased's name was not known.

U. S. Circuit Court Decision.

Judge McKennan, of the United States Circuit Court, decided to-day in the case of the Reading Railroad against John B. Kenney, late United States Collector, that the interest and dividends declared and payable during the last five months of 1870 are exempt from taxation.

CHICAGO.

Excitement on 'Change.

Chicago, August 21.—There was considerable excitement on 'Change this afternoon, caused by a rumor that a petition had been gotten up and signed by members of the Board of Trade, asking railroad and warehouse commissioners to change their grading of barley, so that No. 3 may be inspected as well as No. 2, some dealers having been caught on account of the crop not proving as favorable as they had calculated on early in the season. They are short and unable to fulfill their obligations for delivery of standard No. 2, and so have resorted to this plan to save themselves. The proceeding is denounced as dishonest, and it is claimed that the commissioners cannot now legally change the rules for grading, or rather that any change now would not release the "short" parties from a contract to deliver the grade as it was when the contract was made.

UTAH.

Deserters Caught.

Salt Lake, August 21.—Lieut. Hoxie, of Wheeler's expedition, and the Sheriff of Beaver county, caught deserting packers with thirty-two mules, and have them in custody. The prisoners offered to fight, but finally laid down their arms. The pursuit occupied seven days. Hoxie is now pushing south again.

Indians Opposed to Going on a Reservation.

The Indians of southern Utah have assembled at St. George, awaiting agent Ingalls. They are opposed to going on a reservation. They probably will by free gift offerings.

THE CAPITAL.

Washington, August 21, 1873.

Government Advertising.

The Secretary of War has issued a circular that in all cases where an officer recommends the advertising of any official matter he suggest only the names of newspapers that from their location and circumstances are apt to do the greatest service to the Department.

Collision on the Marrietta and Cincinnati Railroad.

Cincinnati, August 21.—A special to the Enquirer from Loveland says the Chillicothe accommodation train on the Marrietta and Cincinnati Railroad, about four o'clock this afternoon, collided with a freight east of Montgomery, totally wrecking both locomotives and the baggage cars. No passengers were hurt, except one, who, being on the baggage car, was slightly injured. Three train men were killed, named James Parmy, brakeman, Mr. Howard, baggage master, and Charles Kalther, fireman. The wounded are Edward Rother, and the engineer, and Walter Rhodes, express agent, all badly scalded. The accident was caused by the freight train running out of time.

Movements of the President.

Saratoga, August 21.—The President and party arrived last night, and to-day received five thousand people in Congress Hall.

....Another case of cholera was reported last night. Rumor said that Henry Helbling, of Allentown, was suffering from it, and that in consequence thereof considerable excitement was prevailing in that neigborhood.

....The Rochester people are becoming quite enterprising. They have commenced sinking a coal shaft. Five hundred thousand dollars have been subscribed toward the enterprise. They expect to go down three hundred feet.

....There should have been a hearing yesterday before the Mayor in the case of Ernest Bishop, who is charged with shooting George Snyder last Sunday, at a picnic at Oakland, but the prosecutor did not appear and the case was deferred.

....Fred. Guppert, who supported a nuisance in the shape of a too short chimney to a cooper shop, corner of Long Lane and Turner alley, Allegheny, was fined $50 and costs by the Allegheny Mayor yesterday for a breach of the city ordinance.

....Frank Hook who is charged with stabbing Andrew Rudiger several nights ago on a flat boat lying in the Allegheny river at the foot of Tenth street, had a hearing yesterday before Mayor Blackmore, and was committed to jail for trial at court.

....Yesterday morning a little girl about twelve years of age, a daughter of Mr. Peter Gross, of Shaler township, was severely injured by being knocked down and trampled upon by a colt that was being chased by a crowd of boys through the streets of Etna borough.

....Coulter has at last signified his willingness to row Billy Scharff but the latter declines to leave his work and go to training alleging that he can't afford to loose any more time and money on a man who don't mean business. He says he wont row anybody this summer.

...."Lippincott's Magazine" for September is brighter and more interesting than ever. It has three illustrated articles, two pieces of descriptive writing, and a great variety of entertaining and instructive reading matter. J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, publishers.

....John Freyvogle entered suit yesterday before Alderman Shaffer, against N. H. Scott, stakeholder in the Wright-Snyder boat race, to recover fifty dollars he had invested in the match. The Alderman decided that each party should take their own money, instead of turning it over to the Guardians of the Poor.

....It may not be improper to mention that the Washington infantry, under the command of Captain John McFarland, propose, during the Summer of 1874 to make a tour of the eastern cities. The company will be thoroughly drilled, and the occasion will be first class in every respect. At the proper time, further mention of the proposed plan will be made. This company will be in position to creditably represent the city, wherever it may go.

....Upon information from the police at Newark, New Jersey, detectives Messner and Herron arrested a man in the employ of Messrs. Fleming & Co., hatters, Wood street. He protested that he was not the man they wanted. They telegraphed for a description but could not get it and discharged their man. Yesterday officer B. R. Stamsby arrived here to identify the man but he had flown. The person wanted is a hatter by the name of George B. Astley, who forged the name of the President of the Hatters' Union to a $2,500 check, which he drew.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

Brief Mention of Petty Criminalities.

Two men named Hart and McGinn, had a little unpleasaneness in Manchester a day or two ago, in which knives formed prominent weapons of defense. And now the parties have made cross-informations against one another before Alderman Crist.

Alderman Shaffer, of the South Side, issued a warrant for the arrest of John Risinger, who is charged with assaulting and severely injuring Mrs. Mary Foreman while trying to separate him and her son, who were engaged in a fight on Tenth street. George Syer hit Frank Keller over the head with a whisky glass, for which a warrant was issued. Joseph Wette drove his team into that of Wm. Shortuss, injuring one of his horses rather badly, for which he was arrested.

THE GAZETTE says that Senator Carpenter will sue the New York Tribune for libel. Why?—Post.

Because it libelled him, we suppose.

THE Prussian Government is bringing its war with the Jesuits to a practical test, having refused permission to a priest, who had been appointed without reference to its authority, to celebrate divine service. It remains to be seen what the Church authorities will do under the circumstances The circumstance shows that Bismarck's policy on the subject is still in active operation.

BRIGHAM YOUNG is evidently troubled. The institution of the order of Enoch is delayed because of sundry difficulties, in some of which the lawyers and in others; women have a controlling voice. Lawyers and women can certainly create trouble when they try. It looks, however, as though the prophet were uttering an indirect protest against the proceedings of his seventeenth wife.

THE report made of the fight between the Pawnees and the Sioux Indians, fastens the guilt of the affair upon the Sioux, who are represented as having made an unprovoked attack upon a hunting party of Pawnees, at a time when they were laden with buffalo meat. One hundred Pawnees were slain, and barbarously treated. If the facts are as stated, it is incumbent on the Government to properly punish the offending Indians.

THE Democratic party in San Francisco, as we anticipated, is divided, and has two Legislative tickets in the field—one under the influence of, and the other against the Central Pacific Railroad. The misfortune of the situation is that there is also an independent party in the field. If the Republicans unite with this, they are sure to carry the day; but if they also nominate a separate ticket, it will be a mere scrub race, in which the railroad party will probably come out ahead.

SHOULD a general strike ensue among the iron workers in England, as the result of the lock-out of a portion of their force, by the manufacturers, an advance in the price of iron will necessarily and almost immediately follow. The workmen have a large fund, provided for such an emergency as is now upon them, and manifest determination to persist in their demand for a continuation of existing rates. It is not so clear, however, that the owners do not desire a strike for a few months.

AT THE meeting of the Army of the Cumberland, in this city, on the 18th of September next, designs will be furnished by the leading American sculptors, for an equestrian statue of General George H. Thomas. The Committee of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland have decided to erect this monument in the city of Washington,—but the design will be determined on while the Society is in session here. Apropos of this, we hope that proper preparations will be made to accord a fitting reception to the distinguished gentlemen who will visit this city on that occasion. It is currently reported that President Grant, Generals Sherman and Sheridan, and a host of distinguished officers will be present. A committee has preparations in charge, and may be entirely satisfied with the progress being made. If not, we suggest that inasmuch as the time is drawing near, every care will be taken to have our citizens know what is demanded of them. There is no fear but that proper hospitality will be shown, if the people are given to know what is desired.

THE Chicago Tribune, referring to the additional evidence in the Lamont disaster investigation, concludes that the running of trains by telegraph is not effectively done. Both the trains involved in the Lamont disaster were behind time—the passenger train fifteen minutes and the coal train an hour and a half. Referring to these facts the Tribune adds: "It will be incumbent on the managers of the Alton Road to explain why the telegraph was not used on such an occasion. Whatever this explanation may be, it will not relieve Beane and Punenberger, the guilty conductor and engineer who violated the rules, and had means of knowing the situation, but it must be a good one in order to exculpate the managers, and particularly the train-dispatcher, from a share of the blame. In the meantime, why will not all the roads adopt a thorough system of running trains by telegraph, by giving station-masters the authority to hold trains until they are explicitly instructed to dispatch them?" This brings the affair out just as we at first represented it to be. But, as we remarked at that time, there is no necessary difficulty in developing a system that will exactly meet the emergency. There is such a system on the Pennsylvania Railroad. It does not permit a train to pass a station unless it is known that all is right between it and the station beyond. The thorough efficiency of this system has been practically demonstrated, and there is no difficulty in giving it effect. It merely requires a more liberal policy in managing a road.

CONSIDERABLE use having been made of one of the New York Sun's latest fictions that the gold in the United States Treasury is ten millions short, we are gratified at the manner in which the New York World disposes of that sensational story. It says: "Some time ago the people who were and are at work to advance the price of gold, finding it back at 117 on its downward course, bethought them that it would be a fine thing to assert that there was a deficit of $10,000,000 in the Treasury of the United States. To get this assertion, to which the responsible monthly statements of the Secretary of the Treasury have been a sufficient answer, fully before the public, these gentry tried all ways known to them to induce the New York journals to state it as of their own authority. In this they generally failed. Had they attempted this on a rising gold market their manœuvre would only have been dishonorable; attempting it on a declining market, say on Friday, June 16, it was both dishonorable and damaging to their credit. The story has run itself out in this city. Here we have it again, however, from Washington, where its repetition has, apparently, produced a great effect upon a correspondent. It produces none upon us; we have known the origin of the gold-jobbing invention too well. Whether the Secretary of the Treasury will give it any other answer than his usual monthly statement, due twelve days hence, we have no idea." While it was not generally known just what the facts in the case were, the story was never, we think, seriously believed.

TEXAS REPUBLICANISM.

The Platform adopted by the Texas Republicans, at their State Convention, held at Dallas, while mainly devoted to local topics, illustrates very fully the freedom of the Republican party from narrowness of idea. Between the platform adopted in this State, and that of Texas, there is the greatest diversity, if we except two or three resolutions in each that refer to principles of national application. The maintenance of public schools, the conferment of equal rights upon all, State aid to immigration, equal taxation, and judicious economy in State expenditures, the development of the State resources, and the inviolability of the State debt, protection against Indians, the relief of deserving ex-rebels from political disabilities, the improvement of Texas harbors, disapprobation of the Thirteenth Legislature, particularly because it squandered public lands, and a recommendation that only the best men in the State shall be sent to the Legislature, form the topics treated of, that are local to that State. It commends the National Republican Platform, and opposes special legislation, and in this is in accord with Republicans elsewhere.

In their general acceptation, the doctrines to which special application is given in the Texas platform, are common to all Republicans. The aim and drift of Republicans everywhere is to foster development, secure careful and honest administration of State and National Government, and in every way to promote the well being of the people. Nor are the utterances put forth in Republican party platforms mere promises, to which no purpose of performance is attached. Those who engage to pledge the Republican party, at this day, to follow any particular line of policy, know that the general sentiment of the party is inflexibly opposed to mere promises, or to any pledges that will not be carried into effect. As the party usually has the ability to give effect to its pledges, it is careful in making them, and equally careful in keeping them. Those who cannot, in any event, give effect to their promises, can afford, in one view of the case, to be all the more lavish in making them; and they usually are.

THE FRENCH REPUBLIC.

The Duc de Broglie, Minister of Foreign Affairs under MacMahon's Government in France, has written an English diplomatist a lengthy letter, in explanation and defense of the change of Presidents in France. The vote, deposing Thiers, for this is what his enforced resignation really amounted to, is spoken of as a coup d'etat, in that, without referring the subject to the people, a change in the executive head of the nation was suddenly and peacefully made. The Duke admits that the plans of those hostile to Thiers included this, and thus it was of the nature of a coup d'etat, rather than an ordinary Parliamentary movement. The question argued by the Duke is, was the measure justifiable? He argues affirmatively, on the ground that Thiers failed to represent either the majority or the minority in the Assembly, but substituted a personal government instead, selecting his ministry independently of either of the rival parties, and choosing to stand or fall with them. In doing this it is argued that he really favored the restoration of Bonapartism, rather than the perpetuation of the Republic. We quote a paragraph, in which the Minister condenses his more lengthy argument:

The last change of Government is the re-establishment of those conditions of Government which M. Thiers described at Bordeaux so well, and which he realized so ill; to which he attributes all that is good in what was accomplished since the end of the war, and which, by a singular contradiction, he proposed to destroy. So much for the fact. As for the means by which this end was attained, it were difficult to contest their legality. But if friends and admirers of M. Thiers complain of ingratitude, they should not forget that whatever may have been the conservative judgment on M. Thier's policy, they shrunk two years before the act which has just been accomplished. They could not prevail upon themselves to dismiss him. M. Thiers' power was not overthrown, he destroyed it with his own hands. Always confident in his superiority, his skill, his wisdom, he invented the Remutsat-Barodet electoral contest and was beaten. Then he chose to impose on the House a ministry of his own, which was neither with the majority in the House, which was not the representation of the victorious majority out of the House, nor even of the minority who had deputed the victory. Having thus chosen this symbol of weakness as the symbol of his own government he solemnly declared that their fates were linked with his own, and that he would stand or fall with them. I ask whose fault is it if he succumbed?

Marshal MacMahon, it is claimed, represents an entirely different policy,—that of subordinating his administration to the will of the majority in the Assembly. The Ministry is held responsible, and should there be a conflict, the Ministry representing an executive policy, opposed to that favored by the majority of the Assembly, will retire, and another, whose views conform with those of the Assembly will be formed. In other words the English system is in force. MacMahon is simply the Executive head of the Government, and proposes to have no policy of his own, but to give effect to that of the Assembly. He will, thus, be under no obligation to resign at any time, and will continue in office, so long as it may be the pleasure of the Assembly to entrust him with power. These are the points of difference between his, and Thiers' administration. As Duc de Broglie puts it, "He will let Ministries go in and out at the free will of Parliament without interfering himself. So be convinced that Marshal MacMahon's Presidential authority is firmly established—so firmly as never was M. Thiers's. Let those who do not yet understand this important fact reflect on this point. No opposition can be successful in the House if M. Thiers does not lead it; and if he does and succeeds, to what can he aspire with a President who cannot be dismissed, according to law, and who will not link his fate with that of the Cabinet, nor offer his demissions! who, last and not least, has the army behind him."

Another point, incidentally touched upon in this discussion is, the probable future of France, as regards Government. Will it continue a Republic or become a monarchy or an Empire. M. de Broglie thinks that the present form of Government will be perpetuated; but that if any change is made, a monarchy will be established, rather than an Empire with a Napoleon dynasty. His treatment of this point, however, is so equivocal, that at least three different interpretations may be put upon it. Says he "the real difficulty consists not in uniting Legitimists, Orleanists, and even the majority of what you call Bonapartists, but in persuading French public opinion that a king, unfolding the white flag, represents not domination of nobles and priests, feudality, loss for the peasantry of the lands taken in the revolutionary period. This difficulty is great; no one denies is perhaps insurmountable. Nobody asked M. Thiers to overlook it and so found monarchy in France. So much is certain that should this error as to the consequences of the re-establishment of traditional monarchy ever be dispelled in the mind of a great part of the French peasantry it would be as easy to transmit the power to a king as to transmit it from M. Thiers to Marshal MacMahon. So the divisions of the French conservatives are not so deep as you may perhaps suppose them, and derive more force from changeable circumstances than from eternal principles."

According to this, there are deep fears among the peasantry that a monarchy will work serious detriment to their interests. But these fears are presumed to be founded on an error, and, while spoken of as "perhaps insurmountable," are also said not to be so deep as may be supposed. It is thus probable that Broglie really desires the establishment of a monarchy, but fears the people, yet hopes to conciliate them. One declaration contained in the above is, however, significant—that referring to the ease with which power can be transmitted. So far, well. We doubt, however, if MacMahon is so ready to transmit power, unless directed to do so by vote of the Assembly. His position is in very many respects desirable. He is the head of the State, the hero of the army, and is not troubled with a policy, that fruitful source of disquietude and trouble among rulers, whether republican or princely. That he will respect the will of the Assembly is quite probable. Should the nation, through its legislative body, ordain a change of government, he would doubtless give it effect. But that he will intrigue for the restoration of monarchy or empire is quite unlikely. And that the system of government he represents is best for France is clear. The only question is, can it be perpetuated?

A TEN-DOLLAR bill issued by a National bank in Vermont, the back of which was printed from a twenty-dollar plate, was recently shown to Mr. C. L. Osgood, teller of the bank in Ilion, N. Y. It was a genuine bill, and the strange fact can only be accounted for as a mistake in the Printing Department.

THE Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of New York sent out, as laborers in the East India field, Rev. Dr. Grey, Mr. and Mrs. McHenry, Rev. Mr. Mansell, Rev. J. E. A NUMBER of Boston gentlemen, mostly grain merchants, have organized a "Grange of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry." John B. Bartlett was elected Master, and Herbert Radcliffe Secretary. The full number of charter members was obtained. It is proposed to form granges in all the grain ports on the Atlantic coast.

THE Baltimore Gazette thinks Longfellow's genius has faded. It says: "Time was when he could dip a little water from the sacred spring, but now the fountain flows no more for him. The wheezing of the pump alone is heard. Instead of the gush of poesy, we have only the dry hiccough of imperfect suction."

BOYS are deprived of the privilege of hunting birds' nests in the White Mountains. A law of New Hampshire imposes a fine of two dollars for every egg destroyed belonging to robins, thrushes, larks, bluebirds, sparrows, martins, woodpeckers, bobolinks, yellow birds, linnets, flycatchers, warblers, plovers, yellow legs, sand snipes, partidges, grouse, quails and wild pigeons.

A MINISTER in a neighboring town was greatly exasperated lately by a cow which had made havoc in his garden, and which had defied the efforts of the boy who had been sent to turn her out. "Just wait until I get this coat of divinity off, and I'll drive you, you old cuss," said he, and before the words were out of his mouth, the coat was thrown upon the floor and he went for that cow effectually.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Philadelphia Press writes as follows: "In your obituary notice of the Hon. William Morris Meredith you state, in common with all the newspapers, that his mother was a daughter of Gouverneur Morris. That is an error. His mother was Miss Gertrude Gouverneur Ogden, a niece of Gouverneur Morris, as also of Lewis Morris, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. This correction, I think, should be made."

A HAND-ORGAN artist has recently addressed to a New York paper a plea in behalf of his guild, in which he claims, as an humble reader, that he and his associates are entitled to some consideration. While the rich and favored of fortune are able to pay for concerts and other musical feasts, the poor and needy enjoy these hand-organ concerts, and the servants in wealthy households also enjoy, and the children of rich and poor alike are afforded pleasure by these dispensers of a dozen or so of tunes.

A MANUFACTURER in Saxony claims to have discovered a method by which certain alloys of aluminum may be advantageously used in the manufacture of hair springs for clocks and watches. Hitherto the main difficulty in effecting this was that the rolling and drawing of the metal destroyed its elasticity, and it is in overcoming this obstacle that the novelty of the discovery consists. To effect this the wire or band, after having been drawn or rolled to a proper size, is submitted to the action of a plane of peculiar construction, and afterward trimmed to the proper size by grinding. The superiority of these springs over those of steel consists in their being less likely to oxidize, free from the action of magnetism, and less brittle.

A NEW YORK Herald correspondence from Rio Janeiro alleges that an opinion, almost a belief, exists in that city to the effect that His Holiness Pope Pius IX secretly favors a Vatican policy indicative of a removal of the chief seat of government of the Roman Catholic Church, subsequent to his death, from Rome to the territory of the Brazilian Empire, thus fixing the centre of the great religious propagandism in America. The writer sets forth some curious reasons in support of the position. The new Pontiff, wise in his generation, as he will most assuredly be, might do very much worse, and may not, perhaps, do better, particularly when he comes to consider the chaotic condition, both in politics and of creeds, which prevails in the Old World.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Graphic says the popular tune just now in Massachusetts is "Bolt, Ben."

THE editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel is booked for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin.

THE four political organizations in San Francisco are known respectively as the Democrats, the Republicans, the Liberal Reformers, and the Tax-payers.

THE Northumberland Republican County Convention met at Northumberland Tuesday and nominated Colonel John M'Cleery, of Milton, for State Senator, with the privilege of selecting his own conferees.

THE Labor Reformers of Schuylkill county will hold a convention at the court-house in Pottsville, on Tuesday, September 9, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. The delegate election takes place on the Monday previous.

THE Republican leaders in Cincinnati are strenuously urging Judge Stanley Matthews, of that city, for the Chief Justiceship. Judge Matthews, it is said, has stood high with President Grant ever since he wrote a letter last year bolting the nomination of the Cincinnati Convention, of which body he was temporary chairman.

The Ashantee Army.

Prince Ossoo Ansoll, an uncle to the Ashantee King, but educated in England, has supplied to the Times an account of the organization of the King's army. The present King is named Koffee Calcalli, and is eighth of his dynasty; a light man, scarcely darker than a Spaniard, and of some ability, but no education. He can bring into the field about 10,000 men, commanded usually by their own prince, under a kind of feudal arrangement, but he has trained Generals also, who accompany him in his battles. His men are armed with long muskets, short carbines, and pikes; are divided into regiments, and are fed usually by the King, who has enormous wealth in the way of provisions. The King's revenues are derived principally from his gold mines, and a royalty over the gold belonging to his subjects, sources of revenue which, if we are compelled to destroy him, should be immediately annexed. Altogether, remembering that many of his subjects are really hostile, he would appear to be as powerful as an ordinary Indian Prince, and might require 3,000 Europeans and about 10,000 Houssas and Fantees, with a battery of artillery, completely to destroy his regime. By the latest accounts he was still within twelve miles of Cape Coast Castle, not attacking, but not venturing to retreat—a difficult feat for an Ashantee, who depends a good deal for his sovereignty upon prestige.

PERSONAL.

COL. F. H. NOTEWARE, Superintendent of Immigration of Nebraska, is in Italy, arranging for the immigration to that State of a number of peasant farmers.

JOHANNES SCHELKUGHWANKILATI, and Miss Pryzbylowiez were married at Leavenworth, the other day, and the town clerk who made out the license has had cramps ever since.

ANN ELIZA, Brigham Young's seventeenth wife, purposes, after her divorce suit is settled, to enter the lecture field and tell what she knows about the criminality of Mormon polygamy.

PROF. AGASSIZ will probably close his school on Penikese Island this week, or about a fortnight earlier than he had planned to do, on account of the withdrawal of a large number of his students, who are called away to teach schools of their own.

THE Miss Wadsworth who has just been appointed Physician to the Sultan, is a daughter of Titus V. Wadsworth, of Franklin, N. H. She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary, and practised her profession for four years in Springfield, Mass.

FRANZ EGGS, a Swiss of the Canton Valois, was some time ago unfortunately compelled to conquer his father's desire to marry his servant by killing his obstinate old papa. The elder Eggs lived for some time, and gave his parricidal son money to flee to this country. Franz lately became desperate over the failure of his family to meet him here, and, returning to Europe, he ventured into Switzerland, where he was arrested and will be tried for murder.

THE Shah leaves a bad flavor behind him in Europe, and the sooner he gets back to his bulbuls the better it will be for the disgusted Continent. He is by no means a barbarian, but he has all the bad personal qualities of an unchecked ruler, and all the hideous disregard of the decencies, of which a first-class despot is capable. Some States of Europe may desire a political alliance with Persia, but none would favor a personal one.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

MR. D. M. CONWAY, in his last letter, relates the following incident at the Rev. Mr. Spurgeon's church, in London. The two distinguished men first alluded to are said to be Bostonians: "Just before the services two distinguished Americans—one a former official and intimate friend of the late Daniel Webster—had been shown into a pew. Presently the pew-opener came and requested that they would take a seat just behind, 'as a distinguished gentleman and lady had to be placed in the pew they occupied.' The two Americans at once complied, and beheld the gentleman and lady escorted to the vacated seats—both black as the ace of spades."

A TOUCHING LETTER.

Professor Wise's Niece on the Great Balloon Voyage.

The following letter, received by Professor Wise on Tuesday, has been placed at the disposal of the New York Graphic:

ITHACA, N. Y., August 14.

MY VERY DEAR UNCLE: It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and pain that I find myself seated to write to you. My heart is with you in this great work. I, like others, think it a great undertaking; and, while I fear and tremble for you, my wish and prayer are for your success. I do so hope you will get through safely. In so doing you will win a great name; yet, if you fail, what is renown, that wakes to life long after one sleeps in death? That failure may not be your lot prays your own true friend, Marion. Keep up good courage, uncle dear, and never say fail. It does not seem as though you could, after all your hard labor. Do not depend upon your own strength, but look to Him who watches the sparrows when they fall. You cannot guess how many thoughts I give you. I can look from my window down the lake and imagine you in the dark night far up in the heavens; only over waters so much more great and terrible. I only wish I could go with you, which I would do, with your permission, if I were able to bear my own expenses. I would be some comfort to you, I know, as you could unfold to me your hopes and fears. You would find me brave. I am sorry you are growing thin. You must try and not worry. Take things as cool as possible, or, after the excitement is over with, your strength may give out. I hope you may be spared both your life and health. I commend you to the care of one who is wiser than we. May He watch over you and keep you, uncle dear; guard you safely on your journey and bring you safely home. God bless you. Your loving niece, MARION WISE.

A Relic of the Reformation.

A Lancaster correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says: "In the library of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in Lancaster is a well-preserved copy of the first completed edition of the Swiss-German Bible, being perhaps the oldest complete copy of the Holy Scriptures to be found in the United States. This edition was translated from the original tongues by the ministers of the Gospel at Zurich, Switzerland, and published by Christoffel Froschoner, in the year 1531. It came to this country through the hands of the Kupfen-Schmied family from Canton Berne, of Switzerland, to whom it had descended as a precious heirloom, and by whom it was donated to the Reformed Theological Seminary in 1867. This copy contains the Old and New Testament and Apocrypha complete, and must have been one of the first of the Zurich edition which was issued, for the translation of the Zurich New Testament was only completed in 1524, and the Old Testament not until 1529. In 1530 Froschoner issued a quarto edition of the entire Scriptures in Latin letters, but this style of typography not proving popular, the indefatigable publisher prepared this folio edition in German letters, with good wood-cuts and title pages, and type of great beauty and distinctness, which, after these three hundred and forty-two years of improvement and change, remains as interesting specimens of "the black art." The work, as appears from its title page, was given to the public in May, 1531, three years before the first complete edition of Luther's Bible, which was published by Hans Sufft, Wittenberg, Saxony, in 1534. This precious relic of the days of Zwingle and Luther, which was, perhaps, used at times by the great reformer, is almost invaluable, and is preserved with fitting care in the archives of an institution which has done so much to preserve the simple faith of the great leader of the Reformation."

A Wonderful Story.

The Oude (India) Excelsior prints the story following: "Very recently a native, having ornaments on her person worth about 400 or 500 rupees, accompanied her daughter, who also wore ornaments worth about 200 rupees, alighted from the train at Hurdui, and hired an ekka to convey them to their village. On arriving at a lonely spot six miles from Hurdui, there being no villages within miles, the ekka drew up at the side of the road, and the driver suddenly demanded the whole of the jewelry to be given up to him. On being refused, he tied the woman and the girl up to the ekka, and coolly divested them of every article. He then drew a knife with the intention of murdering them, but in the excitement of the moment let the weapon fall into a ditch about three feet deep. He jumped down, and just in the act of clutching at the knife when a blacksnake darted from a hole, and fixed its fangs in his hand; knowing the snake to be an extremely venomous one, he fell down almost senseless with terror, and died in a few minutes. The woman and girl remained there about two hours, when, seeing some villagers at a distance, they screamed for assistance, and, on being released, gave information at the nearest thannah. The police came to the spot, and found the corpse of the ekkadriver, and the snake still there. The corpse was taken to the nearest station for an inquest to be held; the snake was blocked in its hole with a large stone, as the police had not the courage to kill it. The ornaments were found tied up in a kummerbund of the corpse, and were restored to their owners. The foregoing facts were related to us by one whose veracity we have no reason to doubt."

A COLUMBIA paper in its last issue asks, "What becomes of the sons of successful men?" To this the answer comes quick and sharp from the Norristown Herald, which says: "This is one of those conundrums a boy only nineteen years old might answer without sweating his shirt collar. Of course, the sons of successful men, if they live long enough, die and are buried, just the same as the sons of unsuccessful men."

WILLIAM MORRIS MEREDITH.

BY D. BRAINERD WILLIAMSON.

There be who come and dazzle us a day,
As come some stars of faint and doubtful beams,
Nor light, or guide us, with their flickering gleams,
While struggling on life's dark and treacherous way.

But others come—thank God! as comes the sun,
Outpouring deep and broad the golden light,
Imperial in its glory and its might,
To clear and purify the ways we run.

Of intellect, and heart, and presence great:
Broad-minded; with exhaustless wealth of brain
That bounteously dispensed, like plenteous rain,
Make fruitful every power of the State.

No greater hearts, nor heads, than these who come,
And bring to earth the golden age again;
Whose Truth and Eloquence ennoble men,
And strengthen Right, and strike Injustice dumb.

* * * * * *

Of these great hearts was he whose last, long rest,
In death's unyielding arms to-day is found,
With closed lips and eyes, ears deaf to sound,
And tender blossoms nestling to his breast.

Most eloquent and bold—most learned in law,
Peer of the living and those gone before,
He solved the mysteries of legal lore,
Nor failed from every source the light to draw.

He stood, impregnable and confident,
Among the best and bravest of the Bar;
With wit as keen as a lance, or scimetar,
And weighty, clear, resistless argument.

In him the humblest found an advocate,
To shield their rights against the proud and strong;
Who strove to lift o'er prejudice and wrong,
The sons of Afric from their base estate.

And he was of those known as the Just,
Whose lives, through stain of crime or grinding greed,
Have never made the weak and poor to bleed,
Or proved unfaithful to their fellows' trust.

O, rich of fame are they who thus can live!
They make their painless beds on which to die,
With Rest and Peace and Glory gathered by,
And nought desired that mortal hands can give.

O, blest of fame is he who hath his rest,
To day beneath the loving eyes that weep;
Who finds an undisturbed and holy sleep,
With tender blossoms nestled on his breast!

Bear on his clay, in honor to the tomb!
The upright life, thronged with brave deeds well done,
Dies not—it is for time—is just begun,
And with each year more fragrant it shall bloom.

Speedily Cured.—All Forms of Venereal, Private and Nervous disease at the old established Girard Medical Institute, No. 172 Second avenue, between Smithfield and Grant streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.
NO CHARGE UNTIL CURED.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia and all Urinary diseases are cured in the shortest possible time that will insure permanent relief. Spermatorrhea, or Seminal weakness and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse or excess in maturer years, and which produce some of the following effects, as emissions, blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, constipation, despondency, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, loss of memory, and sexual power, and which unfits the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing insanity and consumption, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.
This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and special diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.
Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible, it is best to visit the city for personal consultation, or address:

DR. WHITTIER,
No. 296 PENN STREET, Pittsburgh, Pa.
A regular graduate of Medicine, as his Diploma at office shows, has been longer engaged in the treatment of Venereal, Sexual and Private Diseases than any other Physician in Pittsburgh.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, all forms of Hernia and Rupture, all Urinary Diseases, and Syphilitic or Mercurial Affections of the Throat, Skin or Bones are treated with unparalleled success.
Spermatorrhea, Sexual Debility and Impotency, the result of self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes which produce some of the following effects, viz.: Nervousness, debility, blotches, dizziness, dimness of sight, confusion of ideas, evil forebodings, aversion to society, loss of memory and sexual power, rendering marriage improper and life miserable, are permanently cured. Sealed pamphlet relating to the above sent for two stamps. Correspondence confidential; consultation free. It is self-evident that a physician who treats thousands of cases every year must acquire great skill; many Physicians knowing this, recommend patients to his care. Medicine sent everywhere.

NEW YORK, August 21, 1873.

Money was easy at 4@5 per cent., with the bulk of the business at 4. Sterling was dull and lower 107⅜@107⅞ for sixty days, and 108⅞@108⅝ for sight. Customs receipts $572,000. Gold was firmer, advancing from 115⅜ to 115⅞, with the latest sales at the latter figure. Loans were 1@5 per cent. to flat for carrying. Clearings $27,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $39,000. Governments were quiet and firm. State bonds were dull; old Tennessees firm. A $1,000 Missouri State bond of the St. Joseph issue sold at 90, with more offering at the same price. Stocks were active in leading shares, and an advance was made on the highest prices of the week. The bulls in Pacific Mail put up the price to 42⅜, but there were so many offerings of stock at 42 that the price yielded to 41⅜. The chief interest centered in Western Union, Lake Shore, New York Central, Pacific Mail, Union Pacific, Wabash and Ohios. The market closed strong. The Express says: To-day Lake Shore and New York Central were loaned at 3 per cent., and most of the other shares at 4. There is a large short interest, and many brokers carrying prominent stocks have the whole of them loaned out.

The Chicago Tribune says there was a large increase in the country demands for currency, coming from almost every section of the Northwest, and particularly from Central and Northern Iowa. The pressure to sell exchange to get the currency to meet the orders caused a decline in the price of exchange from 25c per $1,000 discount yesterday, to 50c per $1,000 discount to-day. About 2 o'clock exchange could not be sold much better than 75c per $1,000 discount, and some of the banks having the largest country orders were contemplating ordering currency from New York. There is little doubt that they will be obliged to do so within a day or two at farthest. This sudden demand for capital to move the crops, and the heavy receipts of wheat which will probably result from it in the course of the next three weeks, are indicative of the change to greater activity that will soon take place in the money market and fluctuations that will be experienced in the prices of grain. Everything seems to indicate that we are on the eve of a very active Fall business.

The Boston Globe reports a sharper borrowing demand between the banks was disclosed at the Clearing House, and there were no funds offering below 6 per cent., the institutions finding themselves gainers, generally preferring to retain their balances. The rapidity with which the market has swung round from extreme ease led some to think that the present closer ruling will prove of brief duration.

The flow of currency to the country, says the Cincinnati Gazette, continued, and from some of the banks the amount was large. It is going in all directions to various points in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and to a moderate extent in Kentucky. This reduces the ready means of the banks materially, but some of them, which have few country bank accounts, are not affected. The demand for discounts, however, is not large, and the banks supply the applications from depositors at 8@9 per cent. In the open market money is plenty, and the demand for prime business paper exceeds the supply. That having 3@4 months to run was negotiated at 8@9 per cent., and in two or three exceptional cases 3 months paper was placed at 7 per cent.

The Philadelphia Ledger reports money in abundant supply, all the banks being prompt to discount legitimate business paper, of which, however, there is little making, and even less offering for discount. On the street the larger bill brokers quote call loans at 5 per cent., loans on Government collateral at 6 per cent., on other high grade collateral at 7½ per cent., and on such collateral as is esteemed good 8 to 9 per cent. Best endorsed paper is quoted at 7½@8 per cent. Prime single-name paper, when taken at all, rules at from 8 to 10 per cent.

The Baltimore Gazette says in Railroad stocks 16 shares Baltimore and Ohio brought 172¼, and 20 Northern Central sold at from 36⅛ to 36¼. The transactions in Railroad bonds were light, being comprised in the sale of 1,000 Marietta and Cincinnati 1st at 103, and 2,000 of the 3d 8s at 82⅜—an advance of ⅜ in the 1st, and about ½ in the 3d, over the last sales. Baltimore and Ohio 1875s were wanted at 98, Northern Central 1885s at 88, and Orange, Alexandria and Manassas 7s at 80.

At St. Louis, according to the Democrat, the decrease in the supply of loanable funds had no material effect upon rates, further than a more conservative policy on the part of the banks; the ruling rates were steady throughout at 8 to 10 per cent. per annum, and 7 to 8 per cent. on call. The banks have slightly contracted their discount line, but good short time paper, from thirty to sixty days, is in request at the banks, and can be placed without much difficulty at 8 per cent.

COMMERCIAL.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 21, 1873.

Trade in general merchandise continues rather slow, although, as noted in our last, it is picking up slowly, and the indications are that it will continue to improve from this on during the balance of the year. Flour is firm, and prices are still tending upward. The Grain trade is fairly active, but dealers generally complain that there is little or no margin; if this is the case there is no one to censure but themselves. There is a steady demand for the leading grocery staples, and Coffee continues very strong, and prices are still tending upward. For all kinds of fruits there is a good demand, and prices are considerably higher than at this time last year, from which it is evident that the crop is comparatively light. While it is true that the demand for all of the leading staples is restricted almost wholly to supplying immediate wants, there is, nevertheless, a fair amount of business in the aggregate.

BEANS—$2.90@3 ₱ bushel.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand, especially for the better grades, of which the supply is small, and prices are firm but unchanged. Prime to choice, 20@25, medium to good, 18@20, common, 10@15.

CHEESE—We are reported a steady demand for prime Factory; hence, notwithstanding the arrivals recently have been liberal, and the market is pretty well supplied, prices are fully sustained; we continue to quote at 13 to the trade, and 14 in a jobbing way. Fair to prime Ohio Sweitzer is still quoted at 15@17, as to quality.

EGGS—The feeling is better, especially for good fresh stock, in consequence of a sharp advance in New York, and we should not be surprised if prices should rule higher here within the next few days, as the advance in New York will cause shippers to ship to that point; consequently there will be diminished receipts. We continue to quote at 14@15.

FRUITS—Apples in steady demand, and selling readily at $3.50@4 ₱ brl. according to quality. Peaches, $3@4 ₱ bushel. Plums, $4@5. Blackberries, $1.50 ₱ bucket. Pears, $5.50@6 ₱ brl. Watermelons, $10@20 ₱ 100, as to size and quality.

FLOUR—The market for spring wheat flours continues very firm, and prices have advanced another 25c ₱ brl. with a continued upward tendency; we advance our quotations to $7 50@7.75, the outside figure for choice Minnesota. It is said that choice Minnesota flours cannot be laid down here now under $7.75; if this is correct, the price here, in all probability, will soon be advanced to $8. Winter wheat flours are firmer but without quotable change, $8@8.25 for old; new about 50c ₱ brl less.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11⅜ P, 11⅜; Ex. C, 11c; C. Yellow, 10⅜; Circle C, 10⅜. Lower grades, 9@10.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c Prime 70@72.

GRAIN—There is a fair demand for Wheat, and new red is still quoted at $1.40@1.45; taking the western markets as a basis, prime should be worth $1.50 here, although, as we have previously noted, millers are more disposed to pull down than to advance the price of Wheat, claiming that at quotations it is higher relatively than the product. The Oat market is generally reported dull, and prices are weak and drooping; may be quoted at 43 for prime, old, white and 40@41 for mixed. There has been but little done in new crop as yet, and prices are nominal at 38@40. Shelled Corn is in fair demand, and may be quoted, in elevator, at 55@57, according to quality. Ear Corn is scarce, and there is some inquiry for it; in the absence of sales may be quoted at 55@58. Rye is quiet and nominal at 78@80. There has been little or nothing done in Barley as yet, and there are no established quotations.

GROCERIES—Coffee—Unfavorable news from Rio by a late telegram, and the low stocks in first hands, on the sea-board, forced the market higher to-day and yesterday to the extent of ⅜c per pound, which will likely be augmented at an early date. The stock in importers' hands is about one-fifth of what it was at this date last year, while the Rio news comprises meagre shipments, high rates, and light purchases. In consequence of this news our dealers have advanced roasted coffee 2c per pound, and green in proportion. The advance on roasted barely covers the cost, and it is not unlikely that another advance in this market will take place soon. Our country friends would do well to lay in their supplies early. Sugar firm.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 27; Good to Prime, 25@26c, fair 23@24c. Roasted Rio, 1lb. packages, 30c; loose, 29½c.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10; prime, 9 Patna, 8@8⅜; Rangoon, 7⅜@8.

HAY—The market for baled continues quiet, and prices remain unchanged; we continue to quote, on wharf and track, at $20@$25, according to quality and condition. Loose is selling from country wagons at $30@37.

POTATOES—The arrivals continue liberal and the market in consequence is beginning to show signs of weakness; sales on track at 95@$1 per bushel, and in store at $1.10@1.15.

ONIONS—$4.50@5 per barrel.

POULTRY—Spring chickens, 40@60 cents per pair, according to size; and old ones, 70@80.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ₱ lb. 16⅜. Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 11⅜; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13⅜c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 19⅜@20. Beef tongues, $7.50 ₱ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 10c. Bacon Rib Sides, 10⅜c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 11⅜c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 11⅜c. Mess Pork, $18.00 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in tres, 9⅜. Do. half bbls. 10⅜c. Do. kits 11⅜c. Do. in 3 lb. caddies, 12⅜c. Do. in 5 lb. 12⅜c; Do. in 3 lb. pails 13⅜c; ₱ pound. Do. in 6 lb pails, 12.

RAGS—Quoted at 3⅜@3⅜c.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is selling at $3.60 to the trade, and $3.75 in a jobbing way. Nothing doing in Clover. Flax Seed is still quoted at $1.80.

TALLOW—Quoted at 7⅜@8c ₱ lb.

WHISKY—Highwines firm and higher; we advance our quotations to 99@$1 ₱ gallon.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, THURSDAY, August 21, 1873.

CATTLE.

The market since the date of our last report, yesterday, has been fairly active, and to-day the pens were pretty well cleared, although prices are not quotably higher; there is, as might be expected, in view of a decreased supply and an increased demand, a firmer feeling, but salesmen all agree in reporting that prices were no higher than last week. The bulk of the offerings all week have been common in point of quality, hence, the finer grades were most sought after, and sold quicker and at relatively better prices than common stock; so far as we can learn, there has been nothing sold above 6⅜c and but one or two droves at that—indeed, 6⅜ may now be regarded as the top of the market, and can only be realized for something extra. Quotations may be fairly given as follows: Extra 1,400@1,500 steers, 6⅜@6⅜; prime 1,200 @1,300, 5⅜@6; good 1,000@1,100, 5⅜@5⅜. cows, 3⅜@3; bulls, 2⅜@3⅜. Texans and Cherokee stock, 2⅜@4⅜, according to quality and condition. Well informed operators allege, and we have no doubt it is true, that the great bulk of the cattle sold here for several weeks past have lost money for their owners, some of them a great deal of it, yet in the face of this there is no perceptible falling off in the receipts, and it is evident that there is an oversupply.

SHEEP.

The market has not varied much since the date of our last report, and presents but little additional that is new or important. There is a steady demand for good fat sheep, and as the supply continues light prices are fully sustained; on the other hand, common stock is dragging, although prices are without quotable change. Prime to extra, 100 lb. fine wool, may be quoted at 5⅜@5⅜; prime 95 lb, 5⅜@5⅜, 85@90 lb, 4⅜@5; 75@80 lb 4⅜@4⅜. Jersey ewes $2@3 per head. Little or nothing doing in lambs; it is said that the most of the offerings here recently have been common in point of quality.

HOGS.

The arrivals continue light, and with a demand fully up to the supply, selling mostly on arrival, and with very few, excepting rough stock, in the pens unsold, the market is strong, and prices are still tending upward. Grassers are still quoted at 4⅜@5, as to quality; rough stags, etc, etc, 4@4⅜. Prime light corn fed Yorkers, 5.25@5.35; prime to extra Philadelphias, 5.50@5.60 cts. there is a good demand for stock barrows, and the offerings continue very small; may be quoted at 5⅜@6c.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 21, 1873.

The Crude market continues steady, and prices within the past 24 hours have advanced 5c per brl; quoted to-day at $1.30 ₱ barrel at Parker, equal to about 4c per gallon delivered here. No new strikes have been reported for several days, and this, together with the report that some of the large wells have commenced to fail, is not without its effect in stiffening up the market. Refined is quiet and nominally unchanged 13⅜c on cars here for western shipment, and 16 delivered in Philadelphia. There have been but very few sales as yet to go west; however, our refiners all nearly all pretty comfortably situated as they are sold ahead from 30 to 60 days, and at much better prices than can now be obtained.

Oil barrels still quotable at $2.20 for countries, and $2.30 for city make.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with 6 feet 3 inches in the channel last evening. Weather continues clear and pleasant. Business was very dull at the landing, the offerings of freight being usually light as compared with the early part of the week.

There have been no arrivals since the date of our last report. The Granite State, from Portsmouth, and the Rover, from St. Louis, are the first boats due.

The Juniata did not get off until daylight yesterday. She left here with an unusually good trip of both freight and passengers, and she will doubtless pick up considerable below.

The Fearless left here about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, and got through all right, although she rubbed at Merriman. She will exchange tows with the Hornet when they meet. The Hornet has a tow of empty barges. Eckler and son are the pilots on the Fearless.

The Exchange, Captain Sam. Shuman, is announced to take her departure for Cincinnati to-day without fail. As we stated in our last issue, she is permanently in the trade, for which she is in every way adapted, and we hope she will receive as she deserves, a good trip. Captain J. M. Vandergrift still retains charge of the office.

Com. R. C. Gray is still rusticating at the sea shore.

The Sampson No. 2 and Little Whale reached Cincinnati yesterday, and several others passed there en route for Louisville.

Mr. Charles H. Lorenz, who died at Springfield, Ills., yesterday, was formerly of the firm of Lorenz, Stewart & Co., iron manufacturers, and of late followed the river as captain of the steamer Armadillo. He was in the 35th year of his age. The notice of his funeral will be found in another column.

The Fearless, so we are informed, had about 600 tons of freight on her two barges when she left here, and engagements below, including a lot of nails at Wheeling.

The hull for Walton & Co.'s new towboat, is now at the wharf ready to receive her machinery and cabin. It is expected that she will be completed about the 1st of October.

The hull for O'Neil & Bros.' new towboat, Enterprise is expected to arrive here from the boat yard to-day.

The Alice Brown, en route for Louisville to bring up a tow of ore, struck an obstruction at Rising Sun on Wednesday, and, so it is reported, broke a number of timbers.

—According to the St. Paul Pioneer: Captain Jack Davis is a successful river improver. It says: The troublesome obstruction known as "Pigs Eye" bar has been removed, and doubtless permanently. The trouble from this point arose from the fact that the river was divided by 'Pigs Eye' Island, and immense bars formed across both channels. Captain J. B. Davis, of the United States steamer Montana, conceived a plan to forever remove the cause of vexation, and this he has done by closing the eastern channel, or more properly the slough, with a wing dam, thus throwing the bulk of water into the regular channel. As a practical illustration of the feasibility of his idea it is only necessary to state that there where a few inches of water only covered the bar, it is now four and a half feet deep, and by Monday next will be five feet deep.

—A Cincinnati telegram under date of yesterday says: The Diamond collided with the centre pier of Newport bridge, but did no damage. Alice Brown, with six barges of iron ore passed up. The pilots are Wm. Hall and Jim. Hamilton. The Ark, Eva Williams, Joseph A. Stone, My Choice, Fred Wilson No. 2, Diamond, Dick Fulton No. 3, Tom Reese No. 2, Bengal Tiger, Little Whale, Tom Reese, Tom Dodsworth, Lion, Hornet No. 2, Giant, John Gilmore, Sam. Miller, John Dippold, Resolute, and George Lysle passed down.

—The steamer Josephine, which returned to Bismarck on the 6th inst., succeeded in penetrating further into the country than any of the other boats, having ascended the Yellowstone to a point ten miles above the mouth of Powder River.

—The Keokuk Northern Line packet Company intend to run a line of towboats to do the wheat business for the elevator at Stillwater. The wheat will all go over the Lake Superior rail road and down the lakes. The crop of Wheat is one of the largest that this country ever had.

—The first bale of new cotton raised in Mississippi this year was grown by Henry Kent who resides a few miles below Vicksburg. It was shipped on the City of Vicksburg a few days ago.

—It is reported that Capt. Jas. Nichols, the well known Cincinnati, New Orleans, and Arkansas River pilot, will take charge of the John Howard this fall in the New Orleans and Arkansas River trade.

—The Mollie Moore arrived at St. Louis on Tuesday from Sioux City, and Katie P. Kountz, from the same point, was expected at St. Louis yesterday.

—The contract for the Illinois river improvement has been let to W Johnson & Company, of Fulton, N. Y., for $73,450. This is the same firm which built the dyke across Alton slough.

—The Tennessee River has maintained a better boating tide this summer than has been known since 1835.

—The ferryboat Keokuk, which has been lying in the bay at Quincy for some time past, sunk below her guards on Wednesday.

—The Wild Duck and barges are laid up below Scuffletown awaiting more water.

—Mr. Frank Gilner, clerk of the steamer Dove No. 2, died of cholera at Madison Saturday.

—Capt. Jim Montague is piloting the circus boat Argosy around from Grand Tower to Evansville.

HOME NEWS.

Wood vs. Cobble Stone.

The committee sent out some time since to investigate the pavement question in other cities have returned, having examined the pavements and learned all the facts concerning them in Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Newark, Elmira, Williamsport and other cities. What they have decided upon is not known, but it is hoped that their decision will settle the question in this city.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The Wallace sisters burlesque troupe open this house to-morrow evening, for a short season, with "Aladdin, or the Wonderful Scamp." A first-class company supports them.

AIMS'S AMERICAN THEATRE.—Last evening a jolly programme was presented. A new sensation drama was also given in which Mr. Frayne shoots an apple from the head of a lady, and in which Miss Butler shoots through an apple which Mr. Frayne holds in his hand.

European Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

A dispatch received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship and Telegraph office, at No. 163 Smithfield street, announces the arrival of the Hamburg line steamer Holsatia, at New York; Cunard line steamer Algeria, at New York; Anchor line steamer Caledonia, at New York; Great Western line steamer Arragon, at New York; Great Western line steamer Great Western, at Bristol; Anchor line steamer Castalia, at Moville; Allen line steamer Austrian, at Liverpool.

The Labor Party.

The Committee on Platform and Resolutions of the Labor Party met yesterday in the office of the Labor Tribune, but they did not finish their labors. The Platform will probably be finished to-day. It will take ground in favor of shorter hours for labor where consistent with the general interest of trade, opposition to coolie labor, and in favor of "individual liberty," a protective tariff, and such legislation as will best protect the rights and interests of workingmen and give them a fair representation in Municipal and State councils.

Educational.

Monday September 1st is the opening day of the Western University of Pennsylvania, corner of Ross and Diamond streets. This is an institution of acknowledged superior excellence in mental instruction and discipline, and needs no encomium at our hands, and therefore we only say that it embraces among others a department of civil and mechanical engineering, in which particular attention is given to drawing, and which confers the degree of C. E. or M. E. Also an elective course in which students may select studies from the regular courses and receive certificates of attainment.

One Woman Assaults Another.

Last night Sarah Reed, of Wylie avenue, was called upon by a couple of females, who wanted to know of a certain gentleman friend of theirs was in her house. She didn't give them a satisfactory answer, for which she got several smart raps over the head with a pop bottle. The assaulting females ran off as fast as they could, and the injured woman was carried into a drug store near by, where her wounds were discovered to be quite severe. They received prompt attention. A policeman appeared on the scene promptly, but too late to get his hands on the offenders.

A Mistaken German.

Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning, a German was assaulted on Western near Irwin avenue, by unknown men, who knocked him down. He yelled "Murder!" so loud, that they became frightened and ran away. He however kept up his cry till a policeman came, when he told him the birds had flown with his watch. As the thieves had gone, and neither knew where, it was thought advisable not to run after them. Yesterday an officer repaired to the German's house, when the watch was found in his possession all right. The thieves evidently did not take it, but they did knock him down.

Lack of Fire Plugs in Allegheny.

At the last regular meeting of the Allegheny Councils, a special committee was appointed to investigate the reported lack of fire plugs in several sections of the city, against which much complaint had previously been made. This committee was empowered to locate fire plugs where they were needed. They met yesterday and examined the Second, Fifth and Sixth wards, and found a beautiful lack of fire plugs there, some being 300, 500, 800, and even 1,000 feet apart. They ordered the erection of some forty additional fire plugs in those wards. The committee will meet again at some future time to visit other portions of the city.

That Valise and That Trunk.

Yesterday morning officer Emil Bergher found a trunk at the corner of Seventh avenue and Smithfield street, which, although in rather a dilapidated condition, contained among other things a certificate of marriage between Robert Shields and Mary Peacock, dated at Temperanceville, February 26, 1866; the discharge papers of Robert Shields, of Company I, 91st Pa. Volunteers; the naturalization papers and tax receipts of the same party, whose residence appears to be in Scott township. The valise contained a lot of Cheap John jewelry found in the possession of a suspicious party more than a week since, has not been claimed yet. It is reported that some man going west had a valise stolen from him at Johnstown, and he has been informed in regard to this one, but no reply has been received.

"GONE WITH A HANDSOMER MAN."

She is Expected Back To-Morrow.

Officer Williams, of the Fort Wayne Depot, starts this morning for Cleveland to take charge of Mrs. Lewis, who, it is alleged, ran off from her home, in Birmingham, with a couple of Irishmen, who had been boarding at her house for some time. She took the two children when she left, her husband having no intelligence of such a move. Mr. Williams, who was sent after them, succeeded in tracing them to East Saganaw, Michigan, but there he lost sight of them. A full description was left with the police there, and last night he received a dispatch stating that the woman and children had been found and sent to Cleveland, where they would be held until his arrival.

ALLEGHENY STREETS AND SEWERS.

Contracts Awarded Last Evening.

Last evening the Street Committee of Allegheny Councils met just previous to the Councils' session, and awarded the following contracts: For a seven feet brick sewer, part main and part lateral, on Sheffield street from Beaver avenue to Fulton street, to Charles Faulkner; three feet brick sewer on Beaver avenue from Western avenue to a point twenty feet south of Fayette avenue, to Wm. D. Dunn; three feet brick sewer on Sandusky street and a pipe sewer on Whiston alley to Ark alley, to Charles Faulkner; fifteen inch pipe sewer on Rose alley from Sandusky street to a point forty feet east of Race alley, to Henry Lafferty; eighteen inch pipe sewer on Manhattan street from Western District main sewer to a point twenty feet south of Grant alley, to W. D. Dunn.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Penn Avenue Runaway.

Last evening about eight o'clock a lively and exciting runaway occurred on Eleventh and Liberty streets. A gentleman and lady were driving towards Liberty street in a buggy, when a freight train approached and they were compelled to stop. The horse became somewhat restive, when the gentleman commenced to turn the horse toward Penn avenue and drive on. As he was turning one of the wheels snapped, and the lady shouted. This caused the horse to suddenly turn, throwing the gentleman out on the street, cutting and bruising him badly. The horse then started off down Penn avenue with the lady in the buggy, who was shouting and screaming at the top of her voice. It looked as though she was doomed to serious injury, but in some manner she caught the reins and pulled up the horse, thus saving herself, and then fainted. The parties were conveyed to their homes.

A WILLING WOOER WED.

A Short Courtship and Its Result.

In Brookville, Trumbull county, Ohio, about eight months ago, a prepossessing young man of that village, lost, by death, his wife. Since that time he has busied himself alternately mourning, and seeking a suitable partner in lieu of the departed one, that would grace a new mansion which he has just completed in that village. That he was successful through the assistance of an aged dame the sequel will show. One night he called upon an old lady, when she said it was about time he had got another mate. To this he kindly answered and said, if he could find anybody suitable he would "splice." She told him to "Bide a' wee," which he did. She then went out and brought in a charming maiden; she left them alone a short time, and the result was that the following Wednesday was selected as the day when the nuptial knot should be tied; but the widower remembered that he had a business engagement on that day, and suggested Monday, which was accepted, and David A. Williams and Ellen Struble have been pronounced husband and wife by a resident parson, and entered upon life's duties. May they be happy.

MUCH MIXED.

The Advance Libel Suit—The Proprietors Against Mr. Norris—A Batch of Suits.

The proprietors of the Pittsburgh Advance, against whom a suit for libel was entered before Alderman McMasters by S. S. Norris, on Thursday, on yesterday entered suit against him. Mr. S. K. Gay, one of the firm, is complainant for the proprietors of the paper. He appeared before Alderman McMasters and made two informations against Norris, the prosecutor in the libel suit, one for embezzlement, and the other for larceny by bailee. The first mentioned suit charges Norris with having received goods to the amount of $30.50, from the Advance proprietors, which he has refused to return. This was between the third and nineteenth of July. The second suit accused him of having embezzled chromos and other goods to the amount of $330, between the first and twelfth of August. Norris was formerly in the employ of the Advance. There is another suit, so it is stated, pending against Norris in Westmoreland county. Yesterday S. S. Norris brought suit in the District Court against Rev. W. W. Dallas, W. N. Vandevort, J. E. Deloe and S. K. Gay, to recover damages for libel. The suit is based on the same article upon which the criminal charge of libel was brought on Wednesday before Alderman McMasters. The declaration has not yet been filed, and consequently the amount of damages claimed is not known. A capias was issued by the Prothonotary upon the Advance proprietors, made returnable the first Monday of September.

A hearing was had in the cases against Norris at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was discharged on the charge of embezzlement, but gave bail for Court on the charge of larceny as bailee. The proprietors of the paper also gave bail for Court on the charge of libel brought against them.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.

Mr. SMITH presented the report of the Conference Committee appointed on the ordinance allowing Lewis Elsesser to erect a frame building on Hopkins alley, on which the two branches had failed to agree. The committee recommended that S. C. concur in action of C. C. in passing the ordinance. Adopted.

Mr. HUCKESTEIN, from the Conference Committee on the ordinance allowing Dr. Rankin the right to erect a frame stable, passed in C. C., S. C. non-concurred. The committee recommended that the ordinance be passed in S. C. Lost.

President McBRIER entered during the consideration of the above reports.

The resolution authorizing the clerks of Councils to purchase and use postal cards for notifying members of Councils of meetings and committee meetings, passed in C. C., non-concurred in S. C. The recommendation of the Conference Committee that S. C. rescind and concur, was not adopted.

Mr. SMITH presented an ordinance making it unlawful for engineers to blow the whistle of their locomotives within the city limits, except when starting or stopping their trains. Laid over under the rules.

Mr. J. C. PATTERSON then stated that he believed that Council had not concluded the business from the committees before it adjourned at last meeting, and that he still had some business from the Street Committee which he failed to get in at the last meeting.

The gentleman was directed to present what papers he had, which he did as follows:

Profile of grade on Grant alley; approved. Profile of grade of East street, from old city line to new city line; approved. Profile of grade on Howard street; laid over. Profile of change of grade on Perrysville plank road.

Also, report of viewers on opening of Kerr street.

Mr. SWEENEY presented a remonstrance against the approval of the report. Report laid over and remonstrance ruled out of order for the time.

Report of viewers on opening of Middle alley. On motion the report was laid over.

The ordinance repealing an ordinance for the opening of Preble avenue was called up by Mr. Gault, and passed finally.

Mr. PATTERSON presented an ordinance for the opening of Preble avenue, from Sand alley to Wilkins street. Passed finally.

MR. STUART, an ordinance authorizing the exchanging of the lot owned by the city on Sandusky street, for the next lot below. Passed.

THE UNFINISHED BUSINESS

on the desk was then taken up, and all action of C. C. concurred in except the following:

Ordinance for opening of Grant avenue, passed in S. C. C. C. non-concurred at a previous meeting. S. C. on motion adhered to former action and appointed a committee on conference.

Resolution authorizing the refunding of the assessment paid into the City Treasury for opening of Church avenue.

Passed in C. C., S. C. non-concurred and referred to Finance Committee.

Resolution for appointment of a committee to proceed to Harrisburg and request the Governor to sign the new Pittsburgh city charter. Passed in C. C.; in S. C. laid over.

Ordinance for grading and paving of Superior street. In C. C. passed, S. C. laid over.

Ordinance for grading and paving of Refuge street. In C. C. passed, S. C. laid over.

Ordinance for opening of Return street; passed in C. C. Mr. MOUL presented a remonstrance against the passage of the ordinance, and on his motion the ordinance and remonstrance were both referred to the Survey Committee.

Resolution for a gas lamp at Beaver avenue; passed in C. C., S. C. referred to Gas Committee.

Resolution instructing Street Commissioner to open Bidgwell street; passed in C. C., S. C. non-concurred and referred to Committee on Surveys.

Mr. J. C. Patterson called up the ordinance fixing the salary of the Assistant City Engineer at $2,200 per annum, laid over at a previous meeting. After some discussion the ordinance was again laid over.

All other C. C. business was concurred in.

Mr. Stuart offered an ordinance authorizing the Committee on City Property to erect a frame building for Knap's battery. Passed.

Mr. SMITH, an ordinance prohibiting the excessive whistling of locomotives within the city limits. Referred to Committee on Railroads.

Mr. MOUL, a resolution authorizing the Controller to pay the expenses of the committee sent to Harrisburg by Councils to oppose consolidation, and charge the Contingent Fund.

Mr. MEGRAW opposed the resolution, as he thought that when that committee was appointed, it was understood that it was to cost the city nothing.

Mr. J. C. PATTERSON stated that he had voted for the appointment of the committee and he would now vote to pay their expenses.

MR. MOUL stated that he had not been a member of that Committee but he was in favor of paying the Committee their expenses.

PRESIDENT McBRIER stated that he had understood at the time the Committee was appointed that their expenses were to be paid by the city, and if he had not understood so he would not have appointed the Committee.

MR. MEGRAW stated that he did not think Councils had any right to impose a tax on the citizens, to send Committees to Harrisburg. He thought minorities had some rights.

Mr. Smith wanted to know the amount of the bill, and as the Committee had not yet presented one he moved that the resolution be referred to the Finance Committee. Carried.

Mr. Cochran presented a resolution directing the City Engineer to prepare a profile of grade of Strawberry Lane. Passed.

Adjourned.

BATTING THE BALLS.

Yesterday's Game at Union Park—The Quaker City Gets Away with the Smoky City—Good Score for One Side but Bad for the Other—Another Contest To-Day.

The game of base ball yesterday afternoon at Union Park between the Enterprise and Philadelphia clubs was not a very spirited affair, owing to its being altogether one-sided. The Quaker City lads were too much for our boys, and beat them worse than the Red Stockings did. By the score given below it will be observed that the Enterprise was whitewashed every inning, not making even one score in the entire game. The Philadelphians are just from Chicago, where they played two games with the Red Stockings, being defeated in the first, and coming out victorious in the second. They are so far the champion base ball players of the United States, having won this season more games than any other club, although it is more than we can say how their record will stand when the season winds up. Nearly every member of the club is a strapping big fellow, and but two of them we believe are of ordinary size. However, notwithstanding the weight they had to carry, none were slow in getting around the bases, and none were quicker than they to take advantage of an opportunity to steal a base or sneak home. They are all very much tanned, frequent exposure to the sun producing an ugly mulatto color. The rich Irish brogue of some of them betrays their nativity. O'Brian of the Enterprise was about the only member of that club who compared in statute with their opponents. Nevin's pitching, or rather his underhand throw, was in a measure disagreeable to the Philadelphia's, as it was to a swift for comfortable batting. Pratt pitched during the first half of the game, but his balls were too easy to hit, and resulted in too many scores so they put Nevin to pitch, and from that time until the close of the game the score of the Philadelphia's was kept down. There was a great number of people in the Park, but the enthusiasm did not run up to fever heat by any means.

The following tells the tale:

ENTERPRISE.	B.	O.	PHILADELPHIAS.	R.	O.
Nevin, 3 b.	0	4	Cuthbert, l f.	5	4
Lamont, s. s.	0	4	Wood, 2 b.	4	3
Pratt, p.	0	1	Malone, c.	3	3
Irwin, 2 b.	0	3	Devlin, 3 b.	6	1
D. Ewer, c. f.	0	3	Bechtold, r. f.	4	2
O'Brian, c.	0	3	Fulmer, s. s.	2	5
J. Ewer, 1 b.	0	3	Tracy, c. f.	4	2
McKibbin, l. f.	0	3	Ryan, 1 b.	2	2
Palmer, r. f.	0	3	Zetlein, p.	1	5
	0	27		31	27

The umpire was D. Mack, of the Philadelphia's. The game occupied about two hours and a half, being called at 3:35. Mack generally fills the first baseman's position in the Philadelphia's, but he was thrown from a buggy in Chicago last Sunday and severely hurt, compelling the substitution of Ryan in his place. Devlin is another "sub" occupying the place of Miley, the third baseman. By the score above, it will be seen that he made a better showing yesterday than any of his comrades.

In point of success, the Philadelphia now stands at the top of the heap among the professional base ball clubs of the country. Thus far this season they have played thirty-six games with professional clubs—twenty eight of which they have won. Of these, seven were with the Bostons, the Philadelphias winning four; five with the Mutuals of New York, of which they won four; five with the Athletics, of Philadelphia, winning all of them; seven with the Baltimores, five of which they won; five with the Atheltics of Brooklyn, of which they won four; three with the Washingtons, of which they scored two to their credit, and four with the Resolutes of Elizabeth, N. J., winning all of them.

Another game will be played this afternoon at Union Park between the Philadelphia's and the Iron City Club. The only question is, will the latter club be used up as badly as the Enterprise was. If Major Bebee's boys succeed in making but a single score it will call for a contest between the Iron City and the Enterprise. A brass band it is said, will be on hand at the game today.

The following base ball conundrum is from the Uniontown Genius of Liberty:

Question—If the Enterprise B. B. Club, of Pittsburgh, can make sixty-two runs whilst the White Stockings, of Uniontown, make three, in nine innings; and if the latter can make eighteen runs whilst the Connellsville Club make none, in one inning, what would be the score in a regular match game between the Enterprise and Connellsville? We pause for a reply.

A Hint to Housewives—How to Keep Kitchen Ware Clean and Bright.

Every housewife of neat and tidy habits takes especial delight in keeping all the tin, copper, and iron ware of her kitchen as clean and bright as painstaking labor can make them. A pride in this direction is commendable, and always meets the smiling approval of the "tyrant man" who pays the household bills. Remember that SAPOLIO is the only thing on earth that will make an old tarnished tin pan or a rusty kettle shine as bright as new. And by the use of Sapolio it is the quickest and easiest thing in the world to keep every utensil in a high state of polish. d&S

American Mechanism Triumphant.

Whatever article of utility or beauty was on exhibition at the Vienna Exposition was of course as nearly perfect in all its parts, structure and appointments as human skill and ingenuity could devise. Assuming this to be true, then the victory achieved by the Wilson Sewing Machine by reason of its superiative excellence over all others becomes all the more worthy of consideration. Since it came in competition with no imperfect or inferior machines of other name, and yet so far eclipses all as to receive the first medal of the Exposition, is a verdict that for all time to come determines the great worth, superior merit and general excellence of the Wilson. And this verdict stands not alone, but is the climax of hundreds of others in its favor by our own people expressed through county and State exhibitions. The Wilson is a perfect machine, and has no equal. General agent, Lee S. Smith, No. 14 Sixth street.

THE VICTIM OF FIRE.

The Body of Weider Recovered—Coroner's Inquest—A Peculiar Dream Verified—"The Best Iron"—The Inquest Adjourned.

WHAT WAS DONE IN THE MORNING.

The body of Vincenz Weider, the unfortunate man who was burned in the oil fire on Wednesday morning, was discovered yesterday, but not so badly burned as it was thought it would be, showing that the heat was not so intense there as it appeared to outsiders. The body was charred to a crisp, and one leg and an arm were burned, still it might be said that it was recognizable. The Coroner was notified and empannelled a jury and proceeded to hold an inquest. Mr. Alonzo H. McConnell, the foreman of the Commercial Oil Works, testified as to the explosion, almost substantially as previously published. The men that were in the cooper shop with poor Weider before he was killed, made a statement as to the manner in which they escaped from the burning building. The witnesses under oath detailed the dream which Weider had repeated to them the instant before the explosion. They stated that he appeared to be much depressed when he commenced work in the morning, and they asked him the cause. He then proceeded to relate a dream which he had had the preceding night. He said he dreamed he was in a long frame building at work, and that the structure took fire; he

MADE EVERY EFFORT TO ESCAPE,

but was so hemmed in by fire and smoke that he could not be rescued. He thought he was burning to death when he awoke with a start to find he had only been dreaming. He was so terrified, however, that he was much depressed in spirits. The witnesses stated that he had scarcely stopped speaking when the flames burst upon them, and the poor man's dream became a verity. Allusions having been made as to the unsafe character of the still, by parties not under oath, the Coroner thought it advisable to adjourn the inquest till evening at half-past seven o'clock, in order to secure important witnesses and to make a searching investigation. Accordingly an adjournment to the Coroner's office at that hour was made.

WHAT WAS TESTIFIED TO IN THE EVENING.

Considerable interest seemed manifested, and quite a crowd was present at the inquest. Mr. Weissenberger, who, it is said, had notified the proprietors of the Commercial Oil Refinery, was summoned and called, but he was not present to answer to his name. The inquest was resumed by calling Mr. Alonzo H. McConnell, who stated that he was foreman of the Commercial Oil Works; Mr. McKelvy and I examined the still between 9½ and 10 o'clock; it was usual to go around them very often; Mr. McKelvey was not there often; am not aware that Mr. McKelvey was notified by Mr. Weisenberger of the unsafe condition of the still; found no water or oil leaking into furnaces; did not leak more than other stills; can not account for explosion; don't think fires were out an hour before explosion; our fire is altogether by benzine; we turn down till the water is off; stills frequently have water drawn off; fire was turned off sufficient for water to escape; don't think if fire had been cut an hour there could have been an explosion; stills were there when I went to work at the refinery last October; they were repaired last fall by Mr. McNeil and another; it was near ten o'clock when the explosion occurred; two stills exploded; the smallest exploded first; there are four there, only three working, only one exploded; the other collapsed from the heat.

To a Juror—Stills are not braced.

To the Coroner—The iron is the best manufactured by Lyon & Shorb; a still generally lasts a great many years by repairing; a bottom lasts from one year to eighteen months; I always considered the stills safe.

To a Juror—Have known a still to run a year without repairs.

W. M. Kelvey was the next witness sworn. Am manager of Central Refining Company, I made an examination of the still; we have several works; went to Commercial yesterday; use benzine for fuel; had curiosity to see how it worked; smelled benzine in yard; foreman said still was running too fast; looked at still that exploded; went to a still near the boilers; we have a contrivance to look into the bottoms of the stills; opened one next boiler and examined it, and the rest; just as Mr. McConnell closed the door

I HEARD A PUFF-LIKE

noise; ran out and had got outside when I saw the fire; think it was the action of the water we heard; oil vaporizes at 150 degrees; think explosion was caused by water; water gets to a boiling point at 212 degrees; if we slack fires water works gradually up; Mr. McKelvey explained the explosion by a diagram; the water works to the top and then there is no room for it to evaporate; all oil contains water; there may have been more in it from recent rains; if fire had been shut down an hour previous don't think I could say what the result would have been; there is no rule established to its government as to explosions;

THERE IS NO RULE TO GUIDE

a person; it is usual to start a fire before a still is filled or shutting down; we have a line of pipe in which are little cocks that regulate the filling; we leased the works from Lyons & Co.; don't know how old they are; we have stills that ran four years with repairs; we have run one for two years without repairs; we found stills all right when we examined; we found the still that exploded leaking slightly; saw that before; some leak that way from near the top; I considered stills safe; I would not have run them if they were not; intended to remove stills the 1st of October next; went to see stills to see if they would last; rebottomed them last summer; had bought works from parties, with understanding that they were all right; Mr. Wormser complained considerable; he said they left the place too dirty, the oil running down the track might be set on fire by the engines. He never complained of the stills; he told me yesterday, "I told you it would explode some day;" No one was notified of their danger; am now General Manager for Central Oil Refining Company; am nearly ten years in the business. The still was eleven feet in diamater and twelve feet long. Frederick Schaal, testified that he lived on Smith street; am a boiler maker, examined the stills to day and yesterday;

DON'T THINK THE STILL WAS BRACED PROPERLY;

inside the iron was good; it was the best flange; the tank was too large to be without bracing; my business is near the works; noticed stills most every day; stills I considered safe; one was repaired about four months ago; the workmen that did it were competent; can't account for the explosion; think stills would not have exploded had they been properly braced; the head blew off around the flanges; have built stills of smaller size, 6 feet in diameter; have braced them; it's all according to people's opinion about bracing; some prefer a square piece in centre of head; would get iron as large as possible and flange them with the grain; the stills have been in use, I judge, about six years; don't know for sure; this still was repaired last fall or spring; it must have had a good bottom; the heads of that still were flanged; can only flange best iron; think the braces ought to have been in; there is a difference of opinion in regard to bracing; suppose weakest place in still would be in the head; did not examine them; I did not see the still this afternoon.

James McNeil, sworn—Am a boiler maker; repaired stills last fall; do not know anything about explosion; considered still a good one; think there was two braces in still from one side to the other; still were not defective; had it been, the bottom would have gone first; the iron had not ground away by expansion; the explosion tore the iron; think it was perfectly safe so far as I knew; don't know about braces being necessary; don't think this one needed it; it was strongly riveted all around; don't think braces worth a straw; they are more for ornament than use; thought that still perfectly safe; we put on a new bottom and took out all bad strips when we repaired it; bottom was ⅜ thick and the sides 5-16; it was a first class still, as good as any, in fact the best; stills will generally last about two or three years; it depends how they are used; have not been at works since I repaired stills; best quality of iron is used in heads; it was the very strongest spot in the still that gave; that iron was ⅜ inch thick in bottom and head; we usually use ¼ inch; we use ⅜ iron in order to stand the wear and tear.

Jeffray Purcell was recalled, and testified to slacking the fire, about two hours before explosion.

MIGHT NOT HAVE SLACKED IT

as much as I thought; I shut it off by a valve; never heard a person say that stills were unsafe; never heard Mr. Weissenberger say they were unsafe.

August Bar, sworn—Work for Commercial Oil Company; am still-man; was not present when still exploded; no one ever complained to me of the stills being dangerous; some one asked me once if the big tank was dangerous; that is long ago; it was repaired since; this still was not in use the night before last; it was used Tuesday; never noticed anything wrong with it; never found it to leak in running off or charging.

Mr. E. Houston was sworn. He testified, am book-keeper for Wormser, Meyer & Co., some one told me this morning that he Mr. Weissenberger had notified the manager of the Commercial oil works to stop the still; don't know whether this is so; it may be hear say.

Mr. Weissenberger was again called, but he making no response, the inquest was again adjourned till half past seven o'clock this evening, in order to summon some other important witnesses, as the Commercial company demand a rigid investigation.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH,
MUNICIPAL HALL,
PITTSBURGH, August 6, 1873.

Proprietors Pittsburgh Tar Chemical Works:

GENTLEMEN—Your note of July 30th, asking for an opinion as to the merits of your "Carbolate Powder," as a disinfectant, has been received.

I am directed to inform you, in reply, that having tested your "Carbolate Powder," the Board of Health can cordially recommend it to the public as a cheap and effective deodorant and disinfectant. Very truly yours,

CROSBY GRAY, Health Officer.

It is hardly necessary to add anything to the above. The fact that the Board of Health recommends for general use the Carbolate Powder will convince all of our readers that it is in every respect fully what it is claimed to be. It should be in every house, and freely and plentifully sprinkled wherever a disagreeable odor can be detected. In view of the probability of the approach of cholera every precaution should be taken to ward it off, and nothing can be more effective for that purpose than the Carbolate Powder recommended above.

JUVENILE WANDERERS.

Joie and Charlie Wachtel of Cincinnati.

Officer McMullen, of the Union Depot, received a dispatch from Edward Harman, watchman at the Little Miami Depot, in Cincinnati, last night, stating that two boys, Joseph and Charlie Wachtel, aged respectively eleven and nine years, had ran off from home and started for New York. On the arrival of the night express Officer McMullen went through the train and found the boys tucked away on their seats as snug as could be imagined. He took them in charge, and telegraphed to Cincinnati for their parents to come after them or send instructions for their disposal.

Joe says his father wont let him go into business. He wants to be a cash boy in a store and go to night school. He says his father struck him the other day when he had no business to, and that his mother delights in teasing him. They were heading for New York, where they have an uncle who has been fortunate enough to lay up a fortune, the interest of which keeps him. They were about strapped when they came here, having only about thirty-five cents left. They have a first class through ticket which they purchased out of funds laid up by them for that purpose. They were quartered in the Central Station, where they spent the day reading the papers and sleeping. Joie says if he does go home he is bound to go into business of some kind.

Their father arrived on the 11:20 train on the Pan Handle Road last evening. He will take them home this morning.

THE BEGINNINGS OF SICKNESS.

Never trifle with what are called small ailments. A disorder easy of control at first, if neglected for a few weeks may become a mortal disease. Be especially careful not to let debility gain upon you, for it is the door through which all maladies enter the system. If you feel languid, inert, and to use a common expression, "as if there was no life left in you," resort at once to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That great vegetable tonic will supply the vitality you so urgently need. It is nerve food. By its tonic action the stomach is so invigorated that digestion becomes regular, easy, perfect; while its mild, cathartic properties relieve the bowels from obstructions, and its alterative operation beneficially affects all the secretive organs. For the miseries of dyspepsia, and they include almost every unpleasant feeling that belongs to physical disease and mental wretchedness, this potent tonic is a certain and speedy balm.

AUCTION SALES.

Valuable Leasehold
Business Property!
AT AUCTION.
Six Business Houses,
DIAMOND STREET,
PITTSBURGH.
ON MONDAY, AUGUST 25th, 1873,
AT 4 O'CLOCK,

Will be sold on the premises, that block of new business buildings erected on the south side of Diamond street, above Smithfield street, and directly opposite the site selected for the erection of the new Government buildings. There are six properties, each lot fronting 20 feet on Diamond street and extending back 119 feet to an alley.

Each building is 20 by 60 feet, three stories high and cellar. There is separate entrance to the upper stories. The lease extends 23 years from April last. The annual ground rent for the first two years is $8.33 a lot; for the next five years, $25; for the next eleven years, $100, and for the next five years, six per cent. on the appraised value of the ground alone.

This sale presents extraordinary attractions to capitalists who desire to have a secure investment, with the certainty of steady increase; and also to the business man who may wish to buy a property and avoid the payment of rent.

The location is well suited for nearly all kinds of business, being in the central and busiest part of the city.

It is also sure to receive a great stimulus by the erection of the new Government buildings immediately opposite. The ground floors will make good stores or warehouses, and the second and third stories make capital offices, which will rent well in this vicinity. The many useful and profitable purposes to which these buildings can be applied, will be apparent to those who will exercise good judgment in a careful examination of the premises and neighborhood, presently and prospectively.

The buildings will remain the property of the lessees at the end of lease.

TERMS OF SALE.

One-third cash, the balance in two yearly payments, with interest.

One house will be sold with the privilege of taking all. Any further information can be procured from
